CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—|Special Telegram to the Bee.|-Deliveries were light in everything this morning and the hour devoted to that branch of the business the first of every month was not more than half occupied. Prices started out about where they left off Saturday night. December wheat opened at exactly the same figure and kept very closely around it, only going 1-16c under. Corn was easier, opening at 42%c for May and selling later at 42c. January pork first sold at $3.95. The receipts were 194 cars of wheat, 338 of corn, 115 of oats. A fair degree of strength came into the market almost from the very opening and stayed with it pretty much all day. As recorded above deliveries were light and the idea seemed to prevail that this fact should make higher prices, in that it seemed to express a greater degree of confidence. Most of the trading element have figured it up that be less bearing in this direction. When the be less bearing in this direction. When the visable supply was announced as showing an increase of only 8 30,000 bushels wheat stood at 75½c, but quickly advanced to 75½c, but failed to hold there and went back to 75½@7.5½c. Still later the fluctuations were very steady around 75½c. Corn, after a weak and little lower opening. Corn, after a weak and little lower opening, became buoyant and from the lowest prices of the morning sold up \(\frac{1}{2} \) for Decemberland \(\frac{1}{2} \) for May. Extreme outside quotations were not maintained, but there was a strong under-current to the market all forenoon and a better investment buying was noticed than for some time past. Swartz, Dupee, Jones, McCormick, Kennett, Geo. E. Parker and Singer were all free buyers, not to mention the "small army of shorts," and the demand for the account of outside speculators. Most of the outside buying orders to-day were from the west, where husking has said to have developed an alarming shortage in the yield. Conservative traders who have the yield. Conservative traders who have taken the trouble to investigate the out-turn of the crop to date express the belief that the next government estimate ought to show a decrease in the probable yield of 150,000,000 bushels. Provisions were moderately active. Not a large amount of property came on the market and bidding for near months was more spirited than for later deliveries. In neither instance was trade particularly active. Pork advanced 15c and lard and meats 5c. Toward the close the market eased off, 1 o'clock quotations being nearly on a level with the final prices of Saturday, are suffered to the property of the same property of excepting for December pork and January

2:30 p. m.-Wheat started in strong and higher on large export business. Thirty loads were reported taken. The upward tendency of prices caused covering by shorts year. Lard unchanged: $5.85 November, $5.87% December, $5.82% for the year. Short ribs a shade easler; $5.15 January, $5.17% February. 2:45 p. m.—Puts on December wheat were 75%, calls, 76%; puts on May corn, 42%; calls, 43%c.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

The receipts were heavy, a larger number than a week ago to-day, and the great bulk of fresh receipts were rangers a large per cent of which were common and rough stock. But the great drawback was the turning out of beef butchers in the Morris and Swift houses, causing the withdrawal of two of the leading buyers, thereby disturbing in a serious way the entire business of the day. Shipping steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $4.75@5.20; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs $4.20@4.75; 950 to 1,200 lbs, $3.40@3.90.
